

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

All that is beautiful in a pastoral play will be given under the auspices of and upon the grounds of Lakeside Country Club, when the Shakespearean players will present "As You Like It." No open-air company has achieved a more enviable reputation among the country clubs than Mr. Coburn's band of "The Plains." In the performance of this company the first act is not omitted.

In these days of theatrical incongruities the lover of all that is real and beautiful in the presentation of famous plays welcomes an open-air performance of Shakespeare. The atmosphere and environment in which the play is given leave little to be desired. The performance is given on the edge of a wood with lofty trees and smaller bushes as a background, with the heavens as a canopy and with the artists walking about through this miniature forest in a most entrancing manner. It is easy to see how much charm can be realized in such a presentation. The calcium light is utilized to give the effect of early morning, midday with its glorious sunshine and the moonlit evening with its sentimental atmosphere, and all are infinitely more satisfactory than when represented in the modern theatre. The performance in its entirety is so devoid of any effect that would tend to disillusionize that the people in the play seem to really live the parts they are portraying.

The Lakeside grounds will be the full flush of midsummer glory when the Coburn players arrive. The presentation of Shakespeare's charming woodland idyl is looked forward to therefore as the chief social attraction of the month of July, and one which smart Richmond people will not fail to take in.

WOMEN AT FORTY

IMPORTANCE OF PRESERVING THE HEALTH AT THAT TIME.

Proof of One Case in Which a Weak, Nervous and Discouraged Woman Was Marvellously Helped by the Tonic Treatment.

Women approach their fortieth year with worry and uncertainty, for the manner in which they pass that crisis determines the health of their after-life. During this most important time in the life of a woman her whole aim should be to build up and strengthen her system to meet the unusual demands upon it. Devotion to family should not lead to neglect of self, but hard work and household cares and anxieties should be lived as calmly as possible. Whether she is able to do this or not, no woman should fail to take the tonic treatment if she is entering this critical period in a weak, rundown and nervous condition.

Mrs. Martha Dennis, of 223 West Cedar Street, Kalamazoo, Mich., owes her health to this treatment, says:

"I suffered for a year with weakness, enduring pains which almost made me frantic. My kidneys were weak, I had pains in my loins and back, and could hardly stoop over or lift anything. My life was a torment, my complexion and the whites of my eyes yellow. I had palpitation of the heart, my limbs ached and I had severe headaches. I was troubled with chills, followed by fevers, and would have to go to bed. I could not rest at night, and was unable to remember anything I was weak, irritable, nervous and discouraged."

"After several months of suffering I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the benefit I received from the first few boxes was remarkable. I was cured much sooner than I had hoped, and have been in good health ever since."

Drowsiness, a feeling of heaviness, pain in the front of the head, nausea and even vomiting, dizziness, faintness, hot flashes followed by chills and profuse perspiration, are some of the signs that indicate the need of tonic treatment as the change approaches. If this is your condition you should not wait another day before giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. Our booklet, "Plain Talks to Women," is free on request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

hours exhibition of moving pictures and illustrated songs. This part of the entertainment will begin promptly at 9:30 o'clock.

The ladies who are using every effort to achieve a brilliant success, are looking forward to a large audience and liberal contributions. The Church of the Good Shepherd is now being built at Forest Hill, and the proceeds of the fete will be used for the organ of that church.

The spacious parlors, halls and dining room were tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and a profusion of roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley, presenting a beautiful and most refreshing and all the more attractive by the touch of reminiscence interest in the fact that these parlors were the scene of the wedding of the bride's mother, grandmother and great-aunt.

As the orchestra rendered Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the bride, beautifully attired in white messaline, entered with her father, and the ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. William Meade Clark, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, of Richmond. Miss Grizzelle Mullen, Miss Copeland's first cousin, was maid of honor, and Mr. B. W. Lacy, the groom's brother, was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Florence Lacy, Miss Roy Sands, Miss Marie Lightfoot, Miss Fannie Tobson, Miss Nell Sutton, Miss Mary Johnston, Miss Eleanor Montgomery, Miss Virginia Lacy, Miss Martha Griggs, Miss Bessie Anderson and Miss Elsie Anderson, of this city.

After the ceremony, Judge and Mrs. Mullen gave a handsome reception in honor of the bride party, to whom the many guests extended most respectful greetings.
